SUMMARY

I am a motivated Electronic and Computer Engineering student at Nanyang Polytechnic, actively building a strong foundation in Python, C++, and hardware programming. My practical experience spans quality assurance at Mirae Distributions, efficient logistics with Ninja Van, and customer-facing service at Greenwood Fish Market, honing my reliability and adaptability. As a project leader and former NPCC Sergeant, I have developed actionable leadership and teamwork skills. I am eager to apply my technical aptitude, problem-solving mindset, and meticulous attention to detail to contribute to a dynamic engineering or tech-focused team.
